

Larry Turner (b. 1962)

I was born on Kangaroo Island and I am fourth generation sheep farmer; My jobs have included, farming, crayfishing, shearing, and business founder several business in the past as well as Emu Ridge.

I suppose my masterpiece is this artistic creation that you are standing in, our shop. I have loved building it, utilizing what I can and it is always evolving. I love creating from old into something new. I am also a hobby photographer who loves fishing.

I hope you enjoy my farmers art!
